

Ethernet Link 1 is outboard connection to the ground station and is a direct ethernet link requiring magnetics. Connector on backplane will contain as well as have ESD protection

It has single USB port by default. Need to configure for both Host and Device, VBUS from USB header port controls selection of port as well as OTG control

